

General Information about the Course

LLL Pilot Course Name:	"Print and Electronic Journalism"
University:	Gavar State University
Target student group:	All stakeholders aged 17 and above
Mode of delivery:	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Face-to-face <input type="checkbox"/> Blended learning <input type="checkbox"/> Distance learning <input type="checkbox"/> Other:
Length of the LLL course:	The course requires 124 academic hours /one academic year/ including 40 lectures, 60 practical classes and 24 seminars.
ECTS awarded:	--
Start date:	Sep 15, 2016
End date:	June 26, 2016

Course Overview

One main objective of this course is to create skilled journalists for all streams of media who are socially responsible and committed to the issues journalism. The syllabus of the course is designed to equip the participants with subject area expertise so that they may cover basic issues in a thorough manner. The ensuing graduates of this course will be equipped with the necessary knowledge and skills for a successful career in mass media as reporters, editors, producers, photographers etc.

Course Details

At the successful completion of this course participant 1. Will demonstrate an understanding of the industry makeup and business & societal functions of the various mass media. 2. Will demonstrate an understanding of the basics of journalistic writing for the various forms of media. 3. Will demonstrate an understanding of the research process for the construction of media messages. 4. Will demonstrate an understanding of professional ethics and the laws that govern the mass media industry. 5. Will Gain professional experience through internship.

Entry requirements

Participants are selected based upon the interview results.

Career prospects

Thanks to the course, the student acquires skills in the respective field, is able to correspond with mass media of Gegharkunik region and the capital, gets an opportunity of becoming a literate blogger, acquires skills of narrating the events in a literate manner, writing essays, articles, taking interviews and being competitive in the labour market.

